3 Terms and definitions

The following terms and definitions apply to this document.

3.1 label for emission of volatile organic compounds

An information label indicating that the emission of volatile organic compounds (VOCs) from furniture meets the requirements of specified standards.

4 Labeling objects

When the emission of VOCs from wooden furniture meets the requirements of GB/T 42996.1-2023, or the emission of VOCs from upholstered furniture meets the requirements of GB/T 42996.2-2023, its product manufacturers can use the label for

5.1.4 Pattern requirements

5.1.4.1 The marking of logo patterns can be carried out by posting, spraying, or imprinting. Among them, when marking by posting and spraying, the color of the logo pattern shall comply with the provisions of Appendix A. When marking by imprinting, the true color of the product can be used.

5.1.4.2 The logo pattern shall be clearly visible and shall not impair the performance of the furniture or damage the furniture coating.

5.1.4.3 The logo pattern shall be pasted or hung on an obvious part of the furniture, or it can be marked on the furniture or in the instructions for use.

5.2 Identification label information

5.2.1 Labeling method

The logo pattern should be equipped with an identification label, and the identification label should be placed on the right side or below the logo pattern.

5.2.2 Information content

The identification label shall contain at least the following information:

- a) Company name, production date/batch number;
- b) Product name, specification, and model;
- c) Product execution standard;
- d) Types and limits of VOCs specified in the execution standards;
- e) The statement that "the emission of volatile organic compounds from this furniture meets the limit requirements".

5.2.3 Division of identification label functional areas

5.2.3.1 The identification label consists of two functional areas: "title area" and "information area", see Figure B.1 of Appendix B.

5.2.3.2 The "title area" is located at the top of the label and displays the name information of the label. The left side of the title area is the corporate logo, and the right side is the title name. The name of the label is "家具中挥发性有机化合物释放量", which corresponds to "EMISSION OF VOLATILE ORGANIC COMPOUNDS FROM FURNITURE" in English capital letters, arranged with Chinese characters at the top and English characters at the bottom.
